BELLY FLEA AGORA PRESENTS CARMINE GUIDA of Djinn
27 March 2010

International recording artist, Carmine Guida, will be offering two workshops during the Belly Flea Agora and then joining us, along with his musicians, to perform for us during the last two hours of the Agora. Want to dance with the band? Here's your chance! Private classes with Carmine are also available.

Carmine travels the world teaching people how to play doumbek. After just one session with Carmine, you will be able to play several rhythms. His specialty is teaching drummers and dancers how to work together. Carmine has traveled extensively throughout the U.S. and is a popular workshop instructor. He is annually featured at Rakkasahs East and West, Spring Caravan, and the Bellydancer USA Competition.

BABY BEGINNER DOUMBЕК WORKSHOP – with Carmine

11:00 a.m. – Noon

Workshop Fee: $25.00

Proper hand/finger techniques to produce clean beautiful sounds from your doumbek. You will learn to play several traditional Middle Eastern rhythms as well as how to switch between them. A perfect workshop for beginners or experienced drummers who want to brush up or clean up their technique.

DRUMMERS & DANCERS - with Carmine and assisted by Aegela

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Workshop Fee: $35.00

A multi-level class for both drummers and dancers presenting basic mechanics/ structures of drum solos. Choosing rhythms, dancing to them, smooth transitions and how to anticipate them, the “rule of 4,” typical doumbek riffs, interpreting sounds on our bodies, practice of basic rhythms and transitions, travel steps, layers and accents.

Private classes with Carmine are available on Sunday, 28 March. Please contact Aegela.

Workshop location: Aegela's studio, The Martin School, Room 305
(see Agora flyer for directions)
